

Department of Tourism and Hotel Administration

B.Sc. Tourism and Hotel Administration

PROGRAMME SPECIFIC OUTCOMES(PSOs)

On successful completion of B.Sc. Tourism and Hotel Administration, the students will PSO 1: demonstrate essential knowledge and skills in academic disciplines to be Competent managers in the hospitality and tourism industry.

PSO 2: demonstrate ability to apply and analyze strategies for managing diverse, Multicultural hospitality.

PSO 3: build individual and team performance with participation and draw conclusions and also acquire necessary research skills in hospitality and tourism industry.

PSO 4: communicate clearly and precisely as appropriate for hospitality environments and make use of computer and technical skills for interpreting tourism concepts.

PSO 5: demonstrate an understanding of professional, ethical, legal, security and social issues and responsibilities in the context of hospitality and tourism industry.

PSO 6: enhance leadership skill to respond tactfully on issues emerging in the groups and develop professional and employability skills necessary for hospitality and tourism industry.

PSO 7: demonstrate the ability to recognize and seize opportunities for innovation and new venture creation in the hospitality and tourism industry through life long and self directed learning.