Editorial

It is a matter of proud privilege that IQAC of our college is releasing the Vol.15 No.2 of its news letter 'Kalis IQAC News Bulletin'. It aims to showcase the achievements of its staff and students from the month June 2019 to November 2019. Sri Kaiswari College aims to bring radical changes in teaching and learning scenario, for equipping the students to be employable. Indeed this news bulletin provides a platform for exposing the activities taken to fulfill the vision of the Institution. The participation of faculty members in National /International seminars, conferences and workshops is highlighted in the issue. The output of students' academic and extracurricular achievements is quite amazing and admirable. The credit goes to the management committee of the college specially the Secretary, Shri A. P. Selvarajan who has always extended the financial support and encouraged activities for further development. The active and dynamic leadership of Dr.S.Krishnamurthy, Principal of the college has taken the college to its heights.

Hope that this culture of releasing Newsletter would definitely create an impact in the minds of the readers and will continue to be a rich repository of information about the activities, achievements and records of the college.
